This file contains appropriate styles for processing your manuscript by MS Word. (Please save your file as “.doc” (not “.docx”) format which is compatible with version 97-2003.

Text is 12 points in Times New Roman (justification: full). The first line of a paragraph is indented. If you need, you may use headings. In such a case, fonts are 14 point bold for level 1 heading and 12-point bold italics for level 2 heading. See also “Instructions for Formatting Manuscripts for ISI2008 Extended Abstracts and Proceedings” for details.

References should be cited by the last name of the author and the year with square brackets like this [Toyoda et al., 2007], and should be summarized at the last section.
